Today, KGH hospital workers voted overwhelmingly to form our union by a vote of 111 to 39. We came together to form our union for many reasons and now we can work together to make our goals a reality.

“I’m very excited!”
—Krystal Liddell, Short Stay

“Now we get to the good stuff - bargaining our first contract - for better wages and working conditions so that we can give the best possible patient care.”
—Top: Bill Nelson, Respiratory Therapy.
Bottom: Lisa Burnham, Respiratory Therapy and Pam Way, Respiratory Therapy

“It’s time for change. We want fair wages and working conditions. We want to see this for everyone.”
—Maria Lozano, Central Sterile; Flor Fernandez, Central Sterile and Rosita Jaramillo, Environmental Services

Next Steps

- Our election will be officially certified by PERC in about a week.
- We will begin to build our membership and elect our Bargaining Team.
- Wednesday, June 18 at 5:00pm there will be a planning meeting at the Keewaydin Park Library, 405 S Dayton – All are welcome.
- Unity Celebration Event – details coming soon.