Bargaining Survey Results

We Are Ready to Discuss Our Bargaining Survey Results

Many of us completed bargaining surveys this past May, indicating top priorities for negotiations. That information will help form our bargaining proposals. We are going to share the survey data in person tomorrow 6/8 from 11am-2pm. You are invited to join us on a break.

All are welcome to come by, even if you were unable to complete a survey. This is a great time to make sure priorities are reflected in the survey and discuss some of the next steps in the bargaining process. Let a Union Rep know if you are unable to meet but wish to discuss bargaining priorities further.
