DEIJ Survey Reminder

If you haven't already, please complete this important survey to share about your experience as a member of OPEIU. Survey responses are due by Saturday, September 30. Our International Union's DEIJ steering committee is working with the Cornell Worker Institute to conduct an organization-wide assessment of the union's culture.

This survey is 100 percent anonymous and does not collect or record any identifiable information. The survey may take about 30 minutes, depending on the detail of your responses.

We know that this is no small ask, so at the end of the survey, you may opt into a raffle to win a thank you gift from OPEIU for taking the time to provide your input. If you opt into the raffle, you will be able to submit your survey response and be redirected to a separate sign-up form to enter your information. It can, in no way, be traced back to your survey responses. Your survey will remain completely anonymous whether you enter the raffle or not.

If you have any questions or concerns about this message and/or the survey, you may email DEIJSteeringCommittee.OPEIU@gmail.com.

In solidarity,

OPEIU Local 8
