Group Volunteering Opportunity

Saturday, October 14 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Solid Ground's Marra Farm, 9026 4th Ave S, Seattle

Our Outreach, Engagement, Visibility Committee invites all Local 8 members and your families to participate in this volunteer project harvesting vegetables at Solid Ground's Marra Farm. The vegetables go to their Food Bank. No gardening experience required! Lunch will be provided and all members who RSVP will receive a Local 8 tee shirt. To RSVP, please email corinne@opeiu8.org by Thursday, Oct 12 and include your preferred shirt size and any dietary restrictions.

Please wear clothes for working outside in all weather (including a raincoat, warm socks, sturdy closed-toe shoes, a sunhat, sunscreen, etc.). You can bring your own gardening gloves if you have one, or they have some available which are laundered in between uses.

Solid Ground also asks that we RSVP here and complete this volunteer form before we show up, so please do so if you plan to attend.

Labor Neighbor Day by Local 8 Political Action Committee

Saturday, October 14, 10 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Moshier Park, 430 S 156th Street, Burien

Local 8's Political Action Committee (PAC) invites all members to join us on Saturday, October 14 at 10 a.m. for a Labor Neighbor doorknocking event to support Labor-Endorsed candidates for City Council in Seattle. Canvasses can choose between Maren Costa (D1), Tammy Morales (D2), Joy Hollingsworth (D3), Ron Davis (D4), Dan Strauss (D6), and Andrew Lewis (D7). Meet at the Moshier Park.

This event qualifies for Local 8's Shop Steward Recognition Program.

To RSVP, please email erin@opeiu8.org.
