Bargaining Update

We continue to work towards an agreement on your Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Your Bargaining Team met with Management to negotiate last week on Wednesday and again on Friday.

We are continuing to make movements that will eventually lead us to an agreement, but it is a long process and has been a very frustrating task.

Management has not been forth coming in scheduling consecutive meetings in a timely manner.

Management has brought forward proposals that would take away rights that you all depend on for a healthy work/life balance.

Management have made agreements that they later have denied and claimed that WE were the ones that changed our minds. This has truly been a test of patience and resolve.

We need to show our solidarity and commitment to management. We need management to see that you all stand behind the Union, your Bargaining Team, and the Negotiation process for a FAIR CONTRACT.

Please join us on Thursday night for an informational meeting where we will talk about what our next steps are in this negotiation process.

In an effort to respect everyone's schedules, this is a DROP-IN meeting.

Stop by, have some pizza, talk to your Union Representative and your Bargaining Team, share your concerns, and grab the supplies you will need for our next steps.

Thursday, March 7th

5:30-7:00 pm

Pasco Round Table Pizza

3201 W Court Street
