Union Stewards Needed!

PRMCE is a big place with lots of departments at the Colby and Pacific Campuses. Stewards are the eyes and ears of the Union and are liaisons to the Union Representative. We thank all of our Union Stewards at PRMCE for their incredible work, but with over 1,300 OPEIU Local 8 members at the two campuses, we need more Stewards.

As a Union leader, you are Local 8's representative in the workplace. Union Stewards are organizers, educators, sounding boards, and defenders of workers' rights on the job.

Your Role as a Union Steward

- Introduce yourself and welcome new co-worker(s)
- Build trusting relationships with your co-worker(s)
- Know the different departments, job classifications and other details of your worksite
- Notify your Union Representative of restructuring or new positions that aren't in the Union
- Represent your co-worker's in fact finding meetings
- Invite your co-worker(s) to bargaining unit meetings, trainings, Union Meetings, Membership Assemblies, and other Local 8 events
- Educate members about our New Member Rebate and Shop Steward Incentive Programs
- Share the Local 8 newsletter and announcements with co-worker(s) via word of mouth on your breaks and meal periods and keep your Union bulletin board up to date
