For Local 8 Members at King County

October 23, 2024

Reminder: Town Hall Meetings

Seattle-King County Public Health clinics are still at risk of being shut down. The Coalition is currently working to make sure that King County knows how important these clinics are to our community.

What can you do?

- Attend one of these Town Hall Meetings.
- Speak Up by addressing the King County Representatives.
- Tell YOUR personal stories of how Seattle Public Health has helped you.
- Demonstrate how Public Health Clinics enhance the community.
- Encourage your co-workers to attend and speak up as well.
- Gather information at these meetings and share with your community

YOU can help make sure that King County knows how the decisions they make impact the community is by attending Town Hall Meetings. Speak directly to the people creating the budget and stay up to date on the latest news.
